Online personal health records: Road to real reform?

Posted by: Linn Weiss in H.E.R.I. Blog on Apr 10, 2009

Should Americans support President Obama's effort on electronic health records?

Will digital health data improve the quality of health care and reduce its cost?

The White House stimulus package provides $19 billion over the next two years to promote the adoption and use of health information technology. Moreover, the President has pledged some $50 billion in all over five years.
